Terminal

Terminal is an exhibition of international art made about the airport, not for it. Its artists variously address the airport as site, form, or symbol—often by subverting its iconography and processes, or tackling its histories and politics.

Oracles

Pati Solomona Tyrell and Christian Thompson

Working across performance, photography, and video, Pati Solomona Tyrell and Christian Thompson channel historical spirits and consequences through masquerade.

A Place Apart

Christina Pataialii and Ruth Ige

Painters Christina Pataialii and Ruth Ige traverse abstraction and figuration, their work manifesting an enigmatic in-between.
