Your own Quasi

City
Gallery
Wellington
Te Whare Toi

Draw a surreal self-portrait inspired by Quasi, the sculpture by Ronnie Van Hout pictured here perched on City Gallery's roof.

1. Draw around your ringaringa / hand in an interesting position.
2. Turn it upside down so your fingers become waewae / legs.
3. Draw your kanohi / face on it.
4. Cut it out and take photographs of it going on an adventure around your home or garden.

Where will your Quasi go?
