Marianna Simnett: CREATURE

CREATURE is the first New Zealand exhibition by Berlin-based artist Marianna Simnett. Simnett has gained global attention for her visceral, theatrical works, which draw on storytelling and folklore conventions. CREATURE surveys her video and sculpture from the last six years, telling wicked tales of transformation. WARNING Viewer discretion advised

Every Artist

Art history is too important to be left to art historians. Every Artist is an exhibition of local, national, and international artists who rethink, remap, queer, and even gamify the history of art—often by subverting the tools of art history (maps, charts, diagrams, books, the biopic). This is art history as fodder for art making, not the other way round.
